1962

Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Justin Brown	Music scholarship to St. John's Leatherhead, then London University (History).	Now a violinist, session and studio musician
John Manos	Epsom College, until '66, then Applied Chemistry at Brighton Polytechnic and a career in journalism and publishing (including a decade based in Greece) and currently still working as an editor for the UK Health Security Agency in London.	I am still working at UKHSA London. Planning to retire to Greece in the near future