1965

Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Adrian Chedore	1965 Cranleigh School. 1970 Sussex University. Moved to Hong Kong in 1979. CEO of market research firm Synovate	Now part retired part consulting
Tim Goodman	St John's Leatherhead. Croydon Technical College. A brief spell in fire insurance	Retired. Some coaching, also a Charity Trustee, with active hobbies including motorcycle safety training, chairman of local group
Andrew Lydon	King's Wimbledon. Degree in Civil Engineering. Married with three children. Moving towards retirement.	Starting to take up golf.
Ranjeet Nayyar	Went to Leeds University, then into the family clothing importers business	now retired but sourcing and renting out properties and am still in contact with other old boys from my year
Nick Young	Trained as commercial lawyer, but then spent thirty years in the charity sector, latterly as CEO of the Red Cross in the UK.	Now retired/consulting/charity trustee and adviser