Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Hugh van Gennep	I went on to Epsom College. I have had a varied career, mainly in sales and marketing. I was made redundant in 2007 and found it hard to get a similar sort of job; I took it to mean I was too old (at 47!). I went to a job fair at the Sutton Holiday Inn and one of the employers was the prison service.	I have worked at HMP Downview at Belmont since early 2008. Having lived in Sutton my whole life I moved to Crawley, West Sussex at the end of 2015.
