1976

Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Guy Locke	I went to Bryanston School and thereafter read Economics at UEA. I ended up in the law and qualified as a Solicitor in 1990.	After 5 years in practice with large City firms I went out to the Cayman Islands where I have been living since 1995. Life is good.