1990

Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Dan Pearce	I left Homefield aged 11 and joined Wilson's Grammar School, Wallington where I completed 7 further years education.	I have been working in the Insurance industry in the City of London and have done so for over 15 years now after working my way up the ranks at Zurich Insurance for 10 years and more latterly Ecclesiastical Insurance for over 5 years where I am the Real Estate Underwriting Manager