1994

Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Jamie Hossain	I continued my education at Sutton Grammar School followed by a finance degree at Cass Business School. After graduating, I worked in the City and served as an Army Reservist with the Honourable Artillery Company.	I've continued my career in finance working for a private equity firm developing, investing and managing infrastructure and energy projects in the UK and abroad.