2015

Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Alex Bloor	I left Homefield at the end of year 5, and started at Trinity	I enjoyed Trinity, especially studying Art and Design Technology. This helped me cement my interests in these fields. I am now a project manager for an engineering M&E company working on major projects within the South East and London.
Harry Messent	I attended Reeds School	Looking forward to hopefully studying Biochemistry at Bath
Jay Evemy	I am currently at Trinity School	Enjoying cricket in and out of school
Jonathan Cheng	I went to Wilson's School	I have started at Imperial college London.
Lee Ming Quek	I am currently at Westminster School	Doing my IGSCEs
Luca Shaw	I went to a different school for my senior school	Finishing my A-levels
Matthew Thomas	Went to city of London Freemen's school with other Homefield Old Boys.	I'm enjoying my school life and started some GCSE's this year
Tom Reed	I am now being educated at Charterhouse school	I am in year 9 and I am already getting stuck in to an academic and musical career at the school
Umer Yar	I went to Whitgift School	I am studying Architecture at UAL St Martin's Campus
Yusuf Saleem	I am attending Whitgift School.	Enjoying my new school and looking forward to having a great time with excellent grades.
