2016

Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Ashwin Banerjee	I went to Kings College School, Wimbledon	I am studying Medicine at Imperial College London
Liam Colohan	I went to Epsom Collage.	Great school very friendly and enjoyed it so much.
Maxwell Smethurst	I went to Ewell castle and Joined a football team	Enjoying being a part of the community at Ewell castle Sixth Form.
Rohan Patel	I went to Dulwich College and became Vice-Captain 2020-21.	I am studying Medicine at University College London (UCL). I pursued an Intercalated BSc in Cardiovascular Science at UCL during 2024-25. This involved undertaking a research project within cardiology based at the largest cardiovascular centre in Europe, Barts Heart Centre.
Ved Nathwani	I'm currently studying for my GCSEs/IGCSEs at Reigate Grammar School	I really enjoyed Homefield, and I'm continuing my passions I acquired from there at school currently.