

Homefield Preparatory School

FOUNDED 1870

Homefield is a vibrant, thriving IAPS School with 230 boys between the ages of 3 and 11 years.
Our boys graduate to the most prestigious senior schools.

Teacher of Art and DT for September 2026

Contract type: Part-time (up to 0.6 FTE)

Our school enjoys a reputation for excellence but above all, it is a happy school, where children feel safe, valued and supported by strong relationships with their teachers and their friends. Our nurturing environment supports children to try their hardest in all that they do, inspiring learning through innovation and exciting teaching. What we care about most is developing well-rounded and complete young people moving on from us with confidence, ready for life's challenges.

We are seeking to appoint a highly motivated practitioner to join our successful team as we look to expand our current provision.

We would like to hear from you if you are:

- A teacher of Art and DT with QTS who is able to lead and manage the department, ensuring high-quality teaching and learning
- Able to inspire and motivate students of all abilities to achieve their creative potential
- Able to develop engaging schemes of work that align with curriculum developments
- Able to support and coach colleagues to enhance teaching practices
- Able to play an active role in whole-school initiatives, enrichment activities and contribute to the pastoral structure of the school
- Understand the teaching of Prep School children
